FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Benjamin F. Edwards Welcomes Austin Roberts to Rome, GA, Location

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17, 2026 – St. Louis-based wealth-management firm Benjamin F. Edwards welcomes Austin Roberts, Financial Advisor, to its Rome, GA, location.

Austin brings seven years of experience in the financial services industry to Benjamin F. Edwards. He joins the firm from Edward Jones, where he served as a financial advisor beginning in 2019.

“We are pleased to welcome Austin to Benjamin F. Edwards. He brings valuable experience and a strong commitment to clients, and we are excited to have him as part of our firm,” said Tad Edwards, Chairman, CEO and President of Benjamin F. Edwards.

Austin considers his purpose as a financial advisor to help clients not only reach retirement but also navigate through it. He works with business owners, new investors and clients focused on retirement savings and income strategies, as well as college savings.

He is enthusiastic about helping clients work toward financial freedom through financial responsibility, consistent investing and short- and long-term planning.

Austin earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Shorter University in Rome, GA, in 2012.

Austin is involved locally with the Alzheimer’s Association and has led worship in the contemporary band at First Presbyterian Church of Rome since 2013.

Benjamin F. Edwards has continued to expand its presence across the U.S. by adding experienced advisors to its full-service and independent business platforms.
