FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Benjamin F. Edwards & Co. Opens Reno, Nev. Office Firm Has a Presence in 27 States

(ST. LOUIS, February 20, 2018) – A new year, a new office, and a new state, as St. Louis-based Benjamin F. Edwards & Co. opens an office in Reno, Nev. – its first in the state. With it the firm brings aboard four experienced financial advisors and $220 million in combined assets under management (AUM).

Joining today are the following:

Craig Belis, C(k)P[®], Associate Vice President – Investments: Belis is credentialed as a Certified 401(k) Professional and holds the C(k)P[®] Designation, a distinguished achievement for a professional retirement plan advisor.

He has worked in the financial services arena for nearly 10 years and concentrates on developing asset allocation, financial planning, and retirement planning strategies for his clients.

Christopher J. Cook, Vice President – Investments: Cook began his financial services career almost 40 years ago after working for the Federal Bureau of Investigation and in banking for a short time. Cook works with clients to structure a goals-based financial approach tailored to their goals, objectives and tolerance for risk.

Chris Gant, CFP[®], ADPA[®], Vice President – Investments: With nearly 25-years in the financial services industry, Gant holds the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER certification and Accredited Domestic Partnership Advisor designation.

Mike Zunini, CRPC[®], Financial Advisor: Zunini has been in the financial services industry for more than 10 years. In addition to examining market action through a technical lens, Zunini concentrates on retirement and investment planning for his clients. He is a graduate of the University Nevada with a degree in Business Management, holding applicable securities and insurance registrations.
